ANOTHER CUSTOMS SCANDAL

Albert Gubert, one of the assistant appraisers in the Custom House, was arrested on Tuesday evening, charged with accepting bribes from merchants and passing goods through the Custom House on forged certificates. The complainant in the case is Alois Dietenbrock, who alleges that on one occasion Alois Dietenbrock, who alleges that on one occasion he paid Gilbert $500 for this service, and upon a second occasion the sum of $150. It is said that this practice has been carried on very extensively, and that the government has been defrauded in a very large amount. Gilbert was brought before United States Commissioner Shields and held for examination, though an indictment against him was read at the session of the United States Circuit Court. Bail was fixed at $5,000.

WESTERN UNION.

The Board of Directors of the Western Union Telegraph Company yesterday declared the regular quarterly dividend of one and three-quarters per cent from the net earnings of the three months ending December 31, and also an extra dividend of one per cent, payable out of the surplus cash in the treasury, both dividends to be paid on the 15th-of January. In the report presented by the Executive Committee the official returns for the quarter ended, September 30 showed the profits to be $1,372,449 36, or $113,226 25 more than was estimated in their report at the less quarterly meeting.
